FOURTH ANNUAL SERVICE ACADEMY INFORMATION SEMINAR TO BE HELD ON SATURDAY, APRIL 26 MEETING HOSTED BY COLORADO CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION

Denver, CO – The Colorado congressional delegation will be hosting the fourth annual “Academy Information Seminar” on Saturday, April 26, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Denver Museum of Nature and Science, in the Ricketson Auditorium, which is located at 2001 Colorado Boulevard in Denver.

“I want to encourage any high school student who might be interested in attending one of our nation’s service academies to attend this event on Saturday,” Colorado U.S. Senator Wayne Allard said. “It is an opportunity for them to learn about each academy and get their questions answered.”

“Our academies are our nation's pride. I encourage all interested students to take advantage of the opportunity to learn more about applying to them,” Colorado U.S. Senator Ben Nighthorse Campbell said.

Representatives from the offices of U.S. Senators Ben Nighthorse Campbell and Wayne Allard along with representatives from the offices of Colorado Congressmen Joel Hefley, Scott McInnis, Tom Tancredo, Diana DeGette, Mark Udall, Bob Beauprez and Marilyn Musgrave will be in attendance to discuss the nomination process.

Cadets, midshipmen and other representatives from all the service academies will be on hand to present information about the academies.

Any student interested in attending one of our nation’s service academies is encouraged to attend this meeting. Anyone with questions can contact Marti Morgan in Senator Allard’s office at (970) 461-3530.
